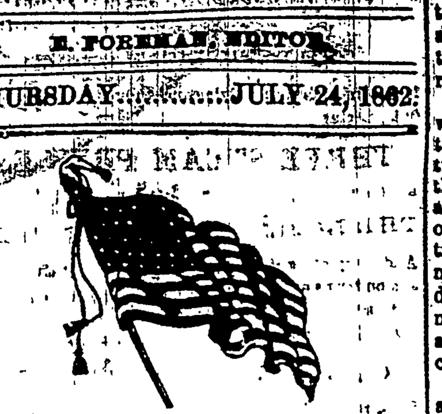
THURSDAY, ... JULY 24, 1862.



OUR PLATFORM.

"Let me embrace this occasion to congratulate the country, and especially those who characterized the conspiracy and throttled the rebellion in the outbreak, upon the exposure of the one, and the virtual overthrow of the other, and the shame and confusion of the supporters, and advocates and apologists of both; and permit me, too, to add one word of warning against the danger of delusive palliatives and mistaken compromises. It is and has been a struggle between a free government and one of the darkest conspiracies, culminating in rebellion, which ever desecrated earth. Now, let there be no unmanly or cowardly shrinking, no terms offered or accepted, but an out and out ABSOLUTE AND UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER."—Daniel S. Dickinson to the N. Y. Union Committee.

C. LAKE, Sec'y.

Wooster, July 18, 1862.

In pursuance of the above call the citizens of Wooster met at the Court House and organized by appointing Dr. L. Firestone President, J. H. Kauke, I. N. Jones, J Zimmerman, J Nachtrieb, E Quinby, jr., and Hon. E. Dean, Vice Presidents, and C. Lake and R. R Donnelly, Secretaries

On taking the chair the President called for the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," which was responded to by Baumgardners' choir in their usual masterly manner, the immense audience joining in the chorus.

Dr. Firestone then briefly stated the object of the meeting, and urged upon every person to do his duty in this our nation's peril.

Col. Given was then loudly called for, and responded in his usual impressive manner. He did not believe there was one traitor in Wayne County. The cause of the Union, the Constitution and the Country must be sustained, and the people of Wayne will unite in doing their duty.

Music—"Forward, boys, forward."

Wm. M. Orr, Esq., next followed in a patriotic speech, urging the necessity of immediate action, when Judge Welker was called upon, who declined making a speech, but urged the necessity of opening a subscription to raise funds as a bounty for the volunteers and sustaining their families. Seconded by J. McSweeney in a few appropriate remarks.

R. R. Donnelly then took the floor, and in his peculiar and energetic manner, showed the necessity of every man doing his duty. None were exempt, all could do something to put down this most cursed rebellion, and called upon all that could not go to aid by their names in giving a liberal bounty to those that may volunteer.

Subscriptions were then called for and thirty-two hundred dollars was subscribed at once, and a committtee, consisting of B. Barrett, J. H. Downing, I. N. Jones and J. Zimmerman, was appointed to canvass the town.

On motion it was

Resolved, That we recommend to the Governor of Ohio, the Hon. D. Tod, to offer a Bounty of $50 to each man that may volunteer for three years or during the war, in this State, and that the Commissioners of Wayne County be requested to make an appropriate bounty for the volunteers to be raised in said County.

E. V. Dean, Esq., offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted by acclamation:

Whereas, We have assembled irrespective of party to express our undiminished confidence in the justice of our cause and our inflexible purpose to maintain it to the end, and so proffer to the Government all the aid it may need to the extent of our resources.

Resolved, That this war was forced upon the Government by the disunionists of the South with the intent of disrupting the unity of the States and the destruction of the Constitution of our Country.

Resolved, That we are for the ... of the Union, the ... [illegible] tion and to the end thereof, we pledge to the Government our hearty support, without condition, or qualification, and that we will maintain, and uphold them under all circumstances, and at every necessary sacrifice of life and treasure until the great work of subduing the rebellion is accomplished.

Resolved, That we acknowledge but two divisions of the people of the United States in this Crisis, those who are loyal to its Constitution, and are ready to make every sacrifice for the integrity of the Union and the maintainance of civil liberty within it, and those who openly or covertly endeavor to sever our Country, or yield to the insolent demands of its enemies,—that we fraternize with the former and detest the latter,—and that forgetting all former party names, and distinction, we call upon all patriotic citizens to rally for one undivided country, one flag, one destiny.

Resolved, That we will to the utmost of our abilities aid and assist in raising Wayne County's proportion of volunteers in compliance with the late call of the Governor of Ohio for troops.

On motion, E. Quinby, Jr., and J. H. Kauke, were appointed a committee to act with the Military Committee of Wayne county in the disbursement of the funds raised at this meeting and that may hereafter be raised for the volunteers from this county.

On motion of R. R. Donnelly, it was

Resolved, That we remember with loved gratitude those noble sons of old Wayne, who to-day stand between us and the rebels, that we honor their courage and will imitate their example, and here in the presence of God and this people pledge ourselves to support them in this hour of their peril and pledge the last man and the last dollar to aid in the suppression of this most unholy Rebellion, and the restoration of Union, Liberty, and Law.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the Military Committee.

Vallandigham Sympathy.

The Crisis, edited by the "Old Wheel Horse" and Blessed Martyr of Secesh Democracy, the Dayton Empire, owned and controlled by the traitor Vallandigham, and sundry other Democratic (?) county papers like the Ashland Union, Stark County Democrat &c , are now busily engaged in getting up sympathy for the traitor JOHN W. KEYS, late editor of the Circleville Watchman, but now an inmate of Fort Warren, where he was sent by the Government on account of his treasonable publications. These papers consider Keys a martyr and worthy of the warmest sympathy of the Vallandighamists. They howl "despotism," "tyranny," and really feel deeply the indignity heaped upon Northern traitors by the Government.—And well they may, for

"No rogue e'er felt the halter draw With good opinion of the law."

They are doubtless not a whit better patriots than Keys in Fort Warren, and equally as guilty as he is, but show more tact and less courage in avowing their sentiments. Feeling conscious of their guilt, the punishment of one of their clique gives them a strange sensation about the neck.

And they ask what has Keys done, that he should be arrested and sent to Fort Warren? but they are very careful not to give their readers the words, uttered and published by the scoundrel, and which caused his arrest. They dare not publish them, lest the honest portion of their readers acknowledge the traitor justly arrested. We will give a couple of paragraphs, so that people may know what kind of patriotism these Vallandigham Editors are defending.

In regard to the taking of Richmond, the "Blessed Martyr," Keys published his opinion as follows:

"There is just as much probability of our forces taking the moon, as there is that we will take Richmond. Whenever Jeff. Davis gets ready to let us have Richmond, he will let us know by taking up his bed and walking away. It will be just as he pleases about it. There will have to be a change of rulers in this country before we shall be rid of this devastating and God abhorred abolition crusade against one half of this once happy and prosperous people. It will be waged by the blind, traitorous, fanatical rulers who are ruling us with an infamous military despotism their only object being the destruction of this Union or of slavery and the satisfaction of their brutal passions for vengeance upon the people of the South, until they are hurled from power by the people. It is to be regretted that the people cannot reach the Nero tyrants immediately. They would be hurled from their abused places of trust with one voice, as it were."

Could any one suppose for a moment that this tirade was written by a Northern man? No Devil in Jeff Davis' domains could spout more treason in less space. How gloriously good Keys and his sympathizers must have felt when they heard the Union army was repulsed at Richmond.

Again, like Jeff. and his minions, this "Blessed Martyr," Keys, was very much incensed at Gen. Butler's celebrated and wholesome New Orleans Woman Order. So he patriotically (speaking after the manner of Vallandigham) wrote and published as follows:

"This is the motto of the Abolition dogs and libertines who are prossecuting this infamous civil war for the freedom and equality with us, of the dusky negro. "Booty and Beauty," is also a motto of such hellians and brutes as Ben. Butler. Why don't the men of New Orleans shoot the infamous wretch like they would a reptile or a dog.

Soon after this publication, this Northern Rebel found himself in Fort Warren, in the midst of his "Southern brethren," and thereupon the Vallandigham presses, and leaders in State Convention, defend the rebel! and harp long and loud about the "tyranny and despotism" of this "abolition Government!"

The War Meeting.

The War Meeting held in Wooster on Saturday evening last was highly creditable to the patriotism of our people. The Court House was filled to overflowing before dark, and the crowd continued till a late hour. The official proceedings will be found in another column, to which we refer for particulars. The speeches were able and of the most enthusiastic and patriotic kind.

The resolutions adopted do honor to the meeting and will be greeted by true Union men and patriots as an indication of harmony, and a desire to lay aside all party matters, and work for the Government alone. They were received with bursts of applause and adopted by acclamation.

The subscriptions to the War Fund were liberal, and amounted to over Thirty-one Hundred Dollars before the meeting adjourned. The amount continues to swell and is now over $5,000 It is expected that some fifteen or twenty thousand will be raised in the County, so that every volunteer may be given a handsome bounty, in addition to what the State and General Government may confer.

The meeting as a whole was highly creditable to the patriotism of those present, and indicated a strong determination to give the Government a united, strong, and unconditional support, in its efforts to suppress the rebellion. We hope many more such meetings may be held in Wayne County, and that the three hundred men called for may be raised at once.

War in Earnest.

Gen. Pope has inaugurated a new and glorious war policy. His orders which we publish elsewhere, will be received with delight by all loyal people. With the exception of Gen. Butler's New Orleans orders, we have had nothing like them in this war. They ring of the true metal. They come fairly up to the sentiments of the people. They are equal to the tremendous crisis of the country.—They are based on strictly war principles. They afford evidence that the abominable conciliatory policy which for a year has hampered our armies, cursed and almost ruined the nation, is to be abandoned—Nothing more encouraging than this could be announced at this time to the people, who have been discouraged by the sluggishness of movement and tenderness for rebels which have characterized the operations of the past.

The Democracy and the War.

The venerable A. B. Johnson, of Utica, (father of Judge A. S. Johnson, late of the Court of Appeals), has been for many years a respected and influential member of the Democratic party, and has written very ably and forcibly in vindication of its principles and policy. The present attitude of its leaders with regard to the War for the Union does not commend his approbation, and in a private letter to an old friend he speaks out as follows:

"Gov. Seymour is out for the war, as are the Democratic leaders generally. I maintain that the Democratic party is more responsible for the war than the Abolitionists. The South would never have hazarded Rebellion if they had expected an undivided North. The Democratic party had for many years told the South to resist Northern aggression, and even as late as the great Democratic Convention at Albany in February, 1860, the speakers who were most applanded said that, if there was to be any fighting, it should commence at the North against those who would coerce the South; but, after thus seducing the South into rebellion by false assurances, they all repudiated their promises, and were among the first to volunteer against the South. They are thus acting the part of Satan, who, after seducing men to sin, assists in punishing them therefor. If anything could add to the baseness of their position, it is the general belief that they are attempting thereby to get into power, that when it is obtained they may betray the North as they have the South by returning once more to their first love as aids of the Rebels."

Executive Orders.

WAR DEPARTMENT, }
WASHINGTON, July 22, 1862. }

First. It is ordered that military commanders within the States of Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas, in an orderly manner seize and use any property, real or personal, which may be necessary, or convenient for the several commands as supplies or for other military purposes; and that while property may be destroyed for proper military objects, none shall be destroyed in wantonness or malice.

Second. That military and naval commanders shall employ as laborers, within and from said States, so many persons of African descent as can be advantageously used for military or naval purposes, giving them reasonable wages for their labor.

Third. That, as to both property and persons of African descent, accounts shall be kept sufficiently accurate and, in detail to show the quantities and amounts, and from whom both property and such persons shall have come, as a basis upon which compensation can be made in proper cases. The several departments of the Government will attend to, and perform their appropriate parts towards the execution of these orders.

By order of the President.

Part of Gen. Pope's Army at Gordonsville.

A Heavy Blow for the Rebels.

IMPORTANT GENERAL ORDERS

The Army to be Subsisted on the Rebels Country.

WASHINGTON, July 18.

We feel at liberty to state that yesterday a portion of the army of Gen. Pope entered the important town of Gordonsville, Va., unopposed and nearly destroyed all the railroad paraphernalia at that point, the junction of the Orange and Alexandria and Virginia Central railroads.—Three-fourths of the troops, munitions and supplies of every description, of necessity passed through Gordonsville by rail.

The blow is, therefore, a most important one, more especially as it is the first of a series, which we trust will do more to cripple the efficiency of their rebel Richmond army than aught that has yet occurred.

HEADQ'RS ARMY OF VIRGINIA, }
WASHINGTON, July 18 }

GENERAL ORDER NO. 5.

Hereafter, as far as practicable, the troops of this command will subsist upon the country in which their operations are carried on. In all cases supplies for this purpose will be taken by the officers to whose Department they properly belong, under orders of the Commanding officer of the troops for whose use they are intended.

Vouchers will be given to the owners, stating on their face that they will be payable at the end of the war, upon sufficient testimony being furnished that such owners have been loyal citizens of the United States.

Since the date of the vouchers, whenever it is known that supplies can be furnished in any district of the country where the troops are to operate, the use of teams for carrying subsistence will be dispensed with as far as possible.

By command of

MAJOR GEN. POPE.

HEADQ'RS DEP'T OF VIRGINIA, }
WASHINGTON, July 18. }

GENERAL ORDER NO 6

Hereafter in any operations of the cavalry forces in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used, so stated specially in the order for the movement.

Two days cooked rations will be carried on the person of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current series for these Headquarters, for the subsistence of men and horses.

Movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext.

Whenever the order for the movements of any portion of the army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching and that to be consumed in the execution of the duty, will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons.

Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of the order.

By command of Major Gen. Pope.

(Signed) GEO. D. RUGGLES, Colonel.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF VA., }
WASHINGTON, June 18 }

GENERAL ORDER NO. 7.

The people of the Valley of the Shenandoah; and throughout the region of operations of this army, living along the lines of the railroad and telegraph, and along the routes of travel in the rear of the U. S. forces, are notified that they will be held responsible for any injury done the track, line or road, or for any attack upon trains or straggling soldiers by bands of guerrillas in their neighborhood.

No privileges or immunities of war can apply to lawless bands of individuals not forming part of the organized forces of the enemy, nor wearing the garb of soldiers, who, seeking and obtaining safety on the pretext of being peaceful citizens, steal out in the rear of the army, attack and murder straggling soldiers, molest teams of supplies, destroy railroads telegraph lines and bridges, and commit outrages disgraceful to civilized people, and revolting to humanity.

Evil disposed persons in the rear of our armies, who do not themselves engage directly in these lawless acts, but encourage them by refusing to interfere or give any information by which such acts can be prevented or the perpetrators punished

The safety of the lives and property of all persons living in the rear of our advancing army depend upon the maintenance of peace and quiet among themselves and upon the unmolested movements through their midst of all pertaining to the military service. They are to understand distinctly that the security of travel is their only warrant of personal safety

It is therefore ordered that whenever a railroad, wagon road or telegraph is injured by parties of guerrillas, the citizens living within five miles of the spot shall be turned out en masse to repair the damages, and shall, besides paying the United States in money or in property, to be collected by military force, the full amount of the pay and subsistence of the whole force necessary to coerce the performance of the work, during the time occupied in completing it.

If a soldier, or legitimate follower of the army, be fired upon from any house, the house shall be razed to the ground, and the inhabitants sent prisoners to the headquarters of this army.

If such an outrage occur at any place distant from settlements, the people within five miles around shall be held accountable and made to pay an indemnity sufficient for the case; and any persons detected in such outrages, either during the act or any time afterward, shall be shot without waiting civil process.

No such acts can influence the result of this war, and they can only lead to heavy afflictions to the population to no purpose.

It is, therefore, enjoined upon all persons both for the security of their property and the safety of their own persons, that they act vigorously and cordially together to prevent the perpetration of such outrages.

Whilst it is the wish of the General commanding this army, that all peaceably disposed persons who remain at their homes and pursue their accustomed avocations, shall subject to no improper burden of war, yet their own safety must of necessity depend upon the strict preservation of peace and order among themselves; and they are to understand that nothing will deter him from enforcing promptly and to the full extent every provision of this order.

By command of Major Gen. Pope.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 17, 1862.

SENATE.—The Senate convened at 9 o'clock. The Rev Dr. Sunderland, Chaplain, returned thanks to the Throne of Grace for the American Senate and the co ordinate branches of the Government, and for results that had this session been accomplished. To this illustrious Congress were the American people indebted for some of the noblest enactments that have adorned the Republic. He gave thanks for the harmony of action that has prevailed; for the firmness with which treason has been rebuked and corruption denounced, and for the general wisdom and foresight with which they have performed their duties.

Mr. Wright, of Ind., from the Committee on the Conduct of the War, wished to enter his personal protest against the publication of a portion of the evidence before the Committee. He would not be considered responsible for its use by the Senator from Michigan, yesterday. He doubted the policy and propriety of such an expose.

Mr. Doolitile, of Wis., from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported, with amendments, a bill to establish a Bureau of Migration. Its object is to superintend the emigration, settlement and colonization of colored people, of African descent, who may desire to migrate to countries beyond the limit of the United States. It appoints a Commissioner of Migration, with a salary of $3,000, a Clerk at a salary of $1,800, and two Assistant Clerks at a salary of $1,200 if in the opinion of the President the duties of the Bureau may require their services.

The Senate passed the House bill making postage and other United States stamps as currency, and prohibiting the issue of notes less than one dollar, etc

When 2 o'clock arrived, Mr. Fessenden from the Committee appointed to wait upon the President, and reported that he had answered—that he had no further communication to make, and the President's message, was similar to that read in the House on the confiscation bill, was laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Henderson, of Mo , submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be presented to the Hon. Solomon Foote, President pro tem of the Senate for the dignified and impartial manner in which he performed his duties whilst presiding over their deliberations during the present session.

The President pro tem , Mr Foote, expressed his full and grateful appreciation of the cordial expression of the Senate in relation to the manner in which the duties of the Chair have been performed—duties that were delicate and often laborious, and involving questions embarrassing and perplexing. It was equally becoming for him to acknowledge the courtesy and forbearance which had been manifested toward him in the discharge of those duties. He wished to acknowledge a like compliment to the excellent officers of the Senate before him. Their country was most loved and revered when most tried and most honored when in trial. He would indulge the hope that they might return recruited in vigor, in strength and health, in heart and in hope, amid the rejoicings of a mighty people, restored to peace, union and harmony. This was his abiding faith and unceasing prayer. He then declared the Senate adjourned sine die.

HOUSE.—The reading of yesterday's journal consumed half an hour. Various messages were received from the Senate concerning certain bills

The Speaker signed numerous enrolled bills, and much confusion prevailed.

The bill to divide Michigan into two judicial districts was passed.

Mr. Stevens, of Pa., moved that the House concur in the request of the Senate to extend the adjournment till 2 o'clock to day.

The Speaker also laid before the House a message from the President, recommending that some suitable acknowledgment be made to Mr. Vanderbilt for the gift to the Government of the vessel bearing that name, which has been doing valuable service. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

The House passed the Senate joint resolution making further appropriation for the current and incidental expenses of the Indian Department.

Mr. Wickliffe, of Ky., asked leave to introduce a resolution that it shall be the duty of the Government to order a record to be kept of the names, ages and sex of all slaves received into our lines, under protection of the army, together with the names of the owners of the same.

Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, objected to the introductian of the resolution.

Mr. Wickliffe moved a suspension of the rules. Not agreed to—yeas 58, nays 45—not two thirds.

Mr. Hooper, of Massachusetts, asked the consent of the House to introduce a bill providing that on and after the 1st of August, all postage and other United Strtes stamps shall be received for all dues less than $5, and which may be received in axchange for United States notes. No private corporation or bank shall make and issue any token, note or device for less than one dollar, to circulate as money. Any person so offending shall, on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for six months, or both, at the discretion of the Court. Objection having been made, Mr. Hooper moved the suspension of the rules. Agreed to—yeas 68, nays 33.

Mr. Hooper caused to be read a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury urging the measure, and enclosing the draft of the bill for the object stated, and also one for changing the weight of the small silver coins.

Mr. Phelps, of Missouri, briefly contended that the second clause, prohibiting paper issues below the denomination of one dollar, is unconstitutional.

Mr. Cox, of Ohio, moved to lay the bill on the table. Not agreed to—yeas 3?, nays 6.

The bill was passed—yeas 62, nays 2?.

The House passed a joint resolution, suspending the sales of lands of Kansas, Sac and Fox Indians until the 4th of March, 1863.

A message from the President was received and read. He says he has approved both the confiscation bill and the supplemental resolution, considering them to be one. Before he was informed of the passage of the resolution, he had prepared the draft of a veto measure, which he transmits, as the bill does not touch persons or property of loyal citizens. In this it is just and proper. It is startling to say that Congress can force slaves of a State, but as rebels forfeit their slaves to the Government, the question is whether they shall be declared free or shall be returned to slavery

He had no objection to the form or course in reviewing the other parts of the bill. He says military commanders should seize and use whatever real or personal property may be necessary for their commands, in some way preserving evidence of such appropriation. He also thinks it proper that military commanders should employ as many persons of African descent as can be used to advantage, ... [illegible]

The message was laid on the table and ordered to be printed

The House passed the Senate resolution providing that compensation to pension agents shall be 2 per cent. on the entire disbursement, compensation shall not exceed $2,000 per annum.

Mr. Walton, from the Committee on Printing, reported a resolution to print ten thousand copies of the President's message on the subject of Confiscation

On motion to lay the resolution on the table no quorum voted.

It now lacked 20 minutes to 2 o'clock, there was a call of the House, the proceedings were temporarily interrupted by the reception of a message from the Senate, stating that that body having completed their business was now ready to close the session. (Cries of good.)

The Speaker, in accordance with usage, appointed a Committee to act with a similar Committee of the Senate to wait upon the President.

Proceedings, in call of the House, were resumed, and continued until 2 o'clock, at which hour the Speaker terminated the roll call.

Mr. Cox, of Ohio, from the Committee to wait on the President, reported that the President had no further business or other communication to present to Congress.

The Speaker said the hour fixed for the adjournment of the two Houses having arrived, I hereby declare the House adjourned sine die.

Applause by the members followed the announcement. A few minutes only elapsed before all the members had left the hall.

IMPORTANT LAW.

The President Authorized to Call Out the Militia.

A bill has passed both Houses, and will doubtless become a law, calling all the militia into the field to put down the rebellion It is doubly important, from the fact that all slaves, after its passage, who come within the lines of our army, are made free forever

The first section provides, that whenever the President shall call forth the militia of the States, he may specify in his call the period for which such service will be required, not exceeding nine months, and the militia so mustered in shall continue to serve for the term specified, unless sooner discharged. If by reason of defects in existing laws, or in the execution of them in the States, or any of them, it shall be found necessary to provide for enrolling the militia, the President is authorized to make all the necessary regulations, so as to include all able-bodied men between 18 and 45, the number shall be apportioned among the States according to their population. When so enrolled, they shall be organized in the mode prescribed for volunteers

The second section authorizes the President to call one hundred thousand volunteers, as infantry, into the field, in addition to the number already authorized by law, for the period of nine months, unless sooner discharged; and every soldier who shall enlist under this law shall receive his first month's pay, and also twenty-five dollars as bounty, upon the mustering of his company, or regiment into the service. All the provisions of the law relating to volunteers in service of the United States for three years, or during the war, except in relation to bounty shall be extended to embrace volunteers raised under the provisions of this section.

The third section authorizes the President to accept such number of volunteers as may be required for filling up the regiments of infantry, now in the service for twelve months unless sooner discharged. All volunteers when mustered into service shall be on a footing with similar troops, except as to service bounty, which shall be fifty dollars, one half of which is to be paid upon forming their regiments, and the other half at the expiration of the enlistment. Section fourth authorizes the appointment of judge advocate general, with the pay of a colonel of cavalry, to whom all proceedings in court martial shall be returned, and no sentence of death or imprisonment in a penitentiary shall be carried out without the approval of the President. Sections five and six authorizes the judge advocate for each army, and section seven requires all battalion officers, quartermasters, and adjutants of cavalry, exceeding the number authorized by law, and now in service, be mustered out of service. Section eight authorizes the President to establish and organize an army at his discretion, and section nine regulates the staff of the commanders of army corps as follows One assistant adjutant general, one quartermaster, one commissary and one assistant inspector general, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, and three aids-de camp. Section ten, regulates the number of offices of cavalry regiments Section eleven authorizes the President to receive into service for the purpose of constructing entrenchments performing camp service, or any military or naval service for which they may be found competent, persons of African descent, and such persons shall be enrolled and organized under such regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws as the President may prescribe, and section twelve enacts that whenever any man or boy of African descent, who, by the laws of any State shall owe service or labor to any person who during the present rebellion has levied war or borne arms against the Government, or adhered to their enemies, shall render any such service as enumerated in the section preceeding, he, his mother, wife and children, shall forever be free, any law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding, and where such persons owe service to loyal masters, provision is made for compensation.

Amendment to the Confiscation Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 16.

The following is the bill that has passed both Houses, which removes the President's objection to the confiscation bill.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives, &c, That the provisions of the third clause of the 5th section of an act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes, shall be so constructed as not to apply to any act done prior to the passage thereof, nor to include any member of a State Legislature or a judge of any State court who has not, in accepting or entering upon the duties of his office, taken an oath to support the Constitution of the so-called Confederate States of America, nor shall any punishment or proceeding under said act be so construed as to work a forfeiture of the real estate of the offender beyond his natural life.

A DARK BAY COLT, about 16 hands high, with black legs, right hind foot white, and star in forehead, supposed to be three years old, was left at the stable of a citizen of Wooster, about three weeks ago, by a man who pretended to be a clock peddler; said clock peddler attended to said Colt, feeding and watering him for some days, but on Monday, the 14th day of July, 1862, he left, and has not made his appearance since. It is generally believed that said Colt has been stolen from some person, and that said clock peddler has abandoned him. Any person desiring information concerning said Colt, can obtain the same by calling on John Bechtel.
